

About Us

Shahidullah & Co was founded in 1993 in London's East End by Mohammed Shahidullah, a qualified accountant with a clear vision of creating a company based on firm beliefs of providing quality services in a principled and ethical way.

Customer service, understanding clients' needs and going that extra mile to ensure ultimate customer satisfaction have shaped the ethos behind the firm's success.

It has been these long-term, equal relationships with clients that have enabled the firm to prosper and gain a respectable reputation.

All our accountants keep themselves up to date on current changes and regularly partake in the CPDs available for ACCA members. We like to stay focused to enable us to give the best advice to our clients.
